

Palm Sunday = Palm Day

Today's focus is on praise and worship (eg, telling God how wonderful and amazing He is). Bible verse: Psalm 150v6 "Let everything that has breath praise the Lord!"

Watch this animated story of Jesus going into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zy2hyrd> or this one: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=l3RVJ9NI7O8>

Song: Hallelujah, Praise ye the Lord: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WuODF9Kbgnw>

Drama and music-based session, which could lead to a Palm Sunday-style procession around your home (see following pages).

Palm Sunday Activities

Palm Sunday is a time when Christians around the world celebrate and praise God. They sing and dance and tell God how great they think he is. Here are a few ideas of how you could explore the story and these feelings of love for God or for a friend or somebody in your family. You could do a few of these activities and then lead a procession of praise around your home!

Use your toys to act out the story of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem.

Listen to this song and use God Is So Good song in English, Spanish, French, Swahili and Chinese: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ab9lj3Ksdtw>

Can you make up your own happy song? It could be to praise God, or it could be a song for a person you love and appreciate.

Make pretend palm branches to wave as you sing and dance. You could write things to praise God for or things you're thankful for on the leaves.