

In each box, record how the crowd of ordinary people would have been feeling and something they might have said.

1. Standing round the fire in the courtyard and asking if Peter was one of the disciples.

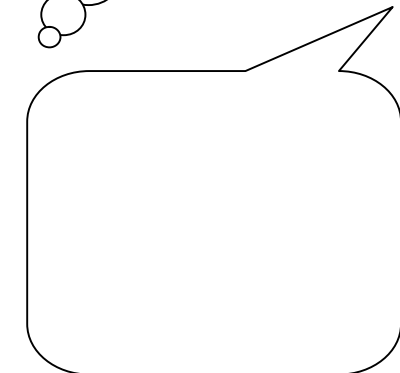

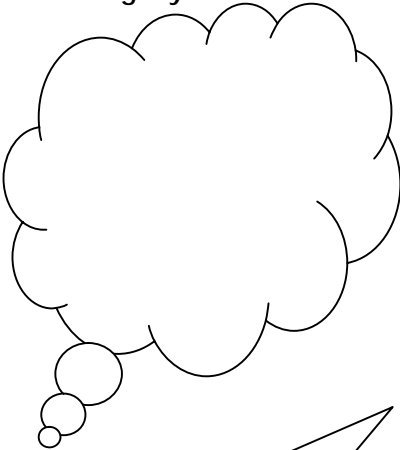

2. Standing in front of Pilate's house and shouting for Barabbas to be released and Jesus to die.

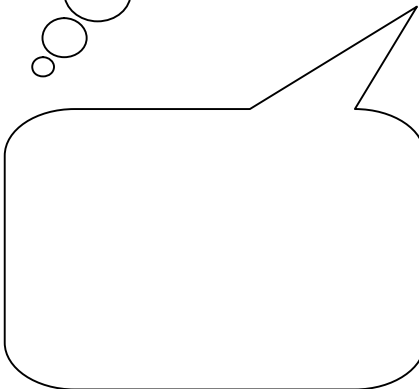

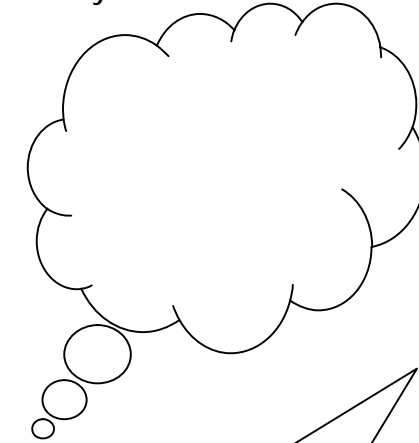

3. Walking alongside as Jesus carried his cross up to Golgotha (where he was to be crucified).

4. Watching as Jesus was nailed to the cross and then was in agony.

5. The moment Jesus died. The sky was black in the middle of the day.

6. Hearing a rumour that the tomb is empty and that Jesus is alive.
